THE RAINBOW.

Oh, say, did you see that beautiful bow,
In the clouds of the evening sky?
'Twas a grand arch of triumph, set up there to show
That Heaven partook of our joy.

Yes, that beautiful bow—with its radiant glow—
Was a touch of the Master's hand:
It gracefully rose, a smile to bestow,
On the grateful joy of the land.

And our Father's bow—full of promise and hope—
Sweet sign of approval and love:
The floods of deep waters have just been dried up—
There is rest for the weary dove.

And that brilliant arch was a glorious dispatch
From the ruler of earth and sky;
A new covenant to-day I make with all flesh—
That Liberty never shall die.

There are storms yet to come—deep floods to arise,
And many dark systems to fall;
But, behold! I have set my bow in the skies,
A pledge—I will bring you through all.

Our Father, we thank thee, with hearts lifted up,
For the joy thou hast given below;
And if ever our spirits should filter or droop,
We'll think of that beautiful bow.

That jubilee bow would have been out of place
In the calm of the midsummer sky,
If it had not appeared, our triumph to grace,
On the eve of the Fourth of July!

July 7, 1865. SEAS RICHARDS.

"CALL ME PET NAMES, DEAREST."—Ever since the meeting of the People's Union Convention, the men who turn the cranks of Mr. Sargent's personal organs in this county have been racking their brains for endearing appellations to bestow upon the Independent candidates and all who say a word in their favor. "Copperheads," "perjurers," "thieves" and "hide-burners" are some of their choicest pet names, and they roll them under their tongues as a sweet melody.

In fact, these epithets and others of a like nature constitute their principal stock in trade. And their blowers and strikers around town indulge in many others too vile and indecent to put in print. Go on, gentlemen!—you know you are gentlemen by the remarks you make. That cause must indeed be desperate which requires for its maintenance not only trickery, fraud and falsehood, but also the slang, vulgarity and billingsgate of the fish market. [Gazette.]

JEFF WILL MEET AN OLD ACQUAINTANCE AT FORT LAFAYETTE.—Should the illustrious captive be transferred to Fort Lafayette, he will there meet in the commandant, Col. Burke, an individual whose presence will remind him of an unpleasant incident which happened when he was Secretary of war under President Pierce. At that time Col. Burke, who was a Lieutenant in the regular army, was one day watching by the bedside of his dying wife, when he received orders transferring him to a distant field of duty. The Colonel telegraphed to the Department begging for a brief delay, in order that he might perform the last sad offices of affection. A peremptory refusal was returned accompanied by an order for immediate departure. The officer obeyed, and never saw his wife again.

A SNEEZING HEAD.—The manager of a Berlin theater got up a drama in which a human head was to be offered to a tyrant. In order to produce as much effect as possible, he resolved to use a human head. On the stage was placed a table covered with cloth, on the table was placed a basin, and an actor, concealed under the cloth, poked up his head through a hole in the table, so as to seem to be placed in the basin. The effect was prodigious; the audience applauded and trembled. Unluckily a wag, who was behind the scenes, sprinkled some snuff on the basin and just as the tyrant finished his address to the severed head of his enemy, the head replied by a hearty fit of sneezing, changing the audience "from grave to gay" with remarkable expedition.

THE WAR EAGLE.—The Third New Hampshire Regiment have carried with them up the mountain their eagle, a magnificent eagle, his place in battle and on the march being on a cross-bar on the flag-staff, and what is somewhat remarkable, where the color bearers of many if not most regiments have fallen in battle, the color bearer of the Third New Hampshire has not been hit, nor has the eagle, though the colors themselves are riddled with bullets. During the grand review at Washington the eagle was hailed with cheers by the crowd, and his majesty replied by loudly flapping his wings.

DISTRICT FAIR.—It has been determined to hold the District Fair for the Northern district of Marysville, by the Solano Press, commencing on the 28th of August. The Marysville folks know how to manage a fair, and the fair there have always been attended with satisfaction and success. They will not, we believe, be behind this season when they have always done. Nothing contributes so much to the improvement of stock and industrial pursuits as good and well conducted fairs, and they should be encouraged.

A REGIMENT OF BATTLES.—The One Hundred and Forty-sixth New York has had inscribed on its colors the names of the following battles in which it has participated: "Hilton Head, Fort Pulaski, James Island, Bull Run, Chancellorsville, South Mountain, M.D., Antietam, Fredericksburg, Siege of Vicksburg, Jackson, Miss.; Blue Springs, Tenn.; Strawberry Plains, Horeman's Farm, Va.; Bethesda Church, Cold Harbor, Petersburg, Fort Mahon, Weldon Railroad, Reams Station, Poplar Spring Church, Capture of Petersburg."

RAYMOND, agent of the Niagara Line, received dispatches announcing the arrival of the steamship Ericsson at New York July 10th, with passengers carried by the America, and that she had left again for Greytown with passengers. The America will sail for San Juan Thursday morning, carrying stowage passengers for $50. Two more steamships are reported dispatched for this side by the Niagara Company.

ART.—The Revere River Reville speaks of the Sacramento Union as a paper that never advocates anything positively, nor says anything indiscreetly, nor cares for anything particularly.

THE MASTERS IN GEORGIA.

The Macon Telegraph thus adapts itself to the situation:
One word to the masters. It will be the best policy at once to prepare for the great change in our social system which now seems inevitable. The change has already been made by many, and some have testified as well as socially. Some have demonstrated to their own satisfaction that the system which they have been taught to believe was indispensable has really been a burden, and are much better satisfied with the arrangements they have made than their fondlest hopes anticipated. Therefore, as a general change will undoubtedly be made very soon by a power that cannot be resisted, the part of wisdom will be to make it after preparations to supply deficiencies in our households.

The Liberalists of Mexico are doubtless almost unanimously in favor of annexing Mexico to the United States. Brigadier General De Berdon, of the Republican army, thus writes to a Colonel in the Federal army:

I am very happy to be able to state to you that we are able to hold out against the enemy until you get through your "little contract," and I feel assured that help will come to us from the other side of the Rio Grande. This is the general conviction of the people; and I am proud to say, Colonel, that we are all desirous of becoming a part and parcel of your great Republic of Republics, to which we had rather become slaves than be subjects of any foreign prince or power, especially of the House of Hapsburg. This is the truth.

NATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION.—The National Typographical Union, June 7th, decided upon holding the next Convention at Chicago.

In the Convention of the Typographical Union reports were received from Unions throughout the Union. Ten Unions are reported in flourishing condition; the others report the prices fair, and some make very bad reports. The Cincinnati Union is reduced one-half. The Boston Union is demoralized, there being only one Union office in the city. At St. Louis the Union has lost control of the daily papers. The Detroit Union is said to be in a more flourishing condition than ever before.

Eloquent.—In his poem at Washoe City on the Fourth of July, Hon. C. C. Goodwin, in a strain of pure, poetic eloquence, awakened in contemplating the flag of our country, says:

May on its folds the stars be multiplied,
Till each star point to its end with pride,
And march our millions from an hundred States.

MEAS.—The Empress Josephine was very fond of perfumes, and above all, musk. Her dressing room at Malmalson was filled with it; in spite of Napoleon's frequent remonstrances. Forty years have elapsed since her death, and the present owner of Malmalson has had the walls of that dressing-room repeatedly washed and painted, but neither scrubbing, aquafortis nor paint has been able to remove the smell of the good Empress's musk, and it remains as strong as if the bottle which contained it had been but yesterday removed.

THE GAME LAW AND SPORT.—The Santa Cruz Sentinel, of July 15th, says:

On Friday, June 30th, the law prohibiting the killing of deer expired by limitation, and already the quick, sharp crack of the rifle resounds and the horn of the hunter is heard on the hill. This year the Santa Cruz mountains are full of game, such as bear, deer, foxes and smaller animals, affording rare sport for good marksmen.

A BOTTOMLESS LAKE.—A lake has recently been discovered near the Bellise plain, in the Excelsior district—the latest discovery among the tall peaks of the Sierra Nevada—although but 400 feet in length by 200 in breadth, has been sounded to the depth of 700 feet without finding any bottom. It probably occupies the crater of an extinguished volcano. A large number of quartz leads appear to radiate in every direction from this lake, as a center, and quite a mining camp is growing up there. [Settlement Press.]

MR. TOULMIN SMITH has made the discovery that in 1838 linen paper was used in England. The quality is apparently an imitation of the texture of vellum. Mr. Smith, who has carefully examined the paper under the microscope, believed that he has found out the secret of its manufacture. It is as durable as vellum, and after five hundred years of very bad treatment, has proved itself to be equally valuable for the preservation of public records.

LINCOLN'S ESTATE.—Judge Davis, of the Supreme Court, has been appointed administrator of the late President's estate, which is valued at the moderate amount of $25,000. On his accession to office in 1861, Mr. Lincoln was supposed to be worth not more than $15,000.

THE RAPIDITY with which President Johnson dispatches public business is remarked by all who visit the executive office. He takes hold of every routine matter in the order in which it comes up and finishes it at the moment with the aid of two clerks.

NO ANIMAL, except man, ever drinks in conjunction with his food. Man ought not to. Try this dyspeptic, and you will not wash down mechanically, what ought to be masticated and assimilated before it is swallowed.

A MARRIED man, who was out at a "whist party," when he proposed going home, was urged to stay a little longer. "Well," he replied, "perhaps I may as well; my wife, probably, is already as mad as she can be."

It is said that the only joke Gen. Sherman ever perpetrated—if we except the one in his letter to Halleck—was upon entering the capital of North Carolina. Turning to a friend of veterans who were marching by the State House, he called out: "Don't you think that's a good place to stop?"

AGENTS OF PUBLIC MEAS.—The Ministry of Great Britain is largely composed of men in "sere and yellow leaf." Lord Palmerston is 81, Earl Russell 73, Milner Gibson, 68, the Lord Chancellor 65, and Mr. Gladstone, who is considered a young man yet, 56. Lord Derby, the Tory leader, is 64, and his lieutenant, Mr. Russell, is 60. Louis Napoleon is 57, the Emperor of Russia 47, and Victor Emmanuel 45.

Of American statesmen and politicians President Johnson and Jeff Davis are both of Louis Napoleon's age, 57; Mr. Seward, Senator Wade and William A. Graham of North Carolina are 65; Thaddeus Stevens is 72, and so is John Stedell, Mr. Fessenden and Henry A. Wise—three, Charles Francis Adams is 58, Chief Justice Chase 57, Charles Sumner and Senator Morgan of New York are 54, Henry Wilson, Fernando Wood and Alexander H. Stephens are 53, Gen. Banks is 49, Henry Winter Davis 48, Vallandigham 44, Speaker Colfax 42, and Senator Sprague of Rhode Island, who has been Governor, General and U. S. Senator, is but 35.

A WARNING TO EAST YONKERS MEN.—John W. Gould, formerly a clerk with Cobb & Sinton, and more lately a mining Secretary, was arrested in San Francisco on Monday, on three charges of burglary. He was taken to the station-house, and having been incarcerated in one of the cells, made a full confession of three burglaries which he had committed. The Bulletin says that "during the first of the above excitement a year ago, he contracted fast habits which he had not resolution enough to break off in hour of adversity, and it was in order to gratify these habits and make a show in society which he could not afford that he has resorted to measures which forever disgrace him, and perhaps will send him to the State Prison for many years. The example of Gould, who is well known to the young gentlemen of this city, will no doubt have a salutary effect." [Box.]

There is now growing on the farm of Capt. Isaac Green, of Surry, Maine, a willow tree, fifty-nine years old, that measures eight feet four inches in circumference three feet from the ground. Five feet from the ground there are four limbs measuring in circumference as follows: Seven feet, six feet four inches, seven feet six inches, eight feet.

The rector of an Episcopal church in Salem, Massachusetts, is in an uncomfortable condition with his flock. They ask him to resign, and he will not. They ask him to remove him, but he refuses. Thereupon, the parish voted to make his salary twelve dollars a year, and think they can now stand it as long as their unwelcome pastor can.

It is remarked that nearly all the desperadoes who used to infest the country have been killed off, chiefly by one another. Washoe has been a slaughter-pen for them. In Virginia, a vigilance hanging committee was not formed, solely because the wretches were staying one another and nobody else. Mulligan and McNabb were among the last of the old stock.

GEN. SHERMAN'S MONITOR.—It is now semi-officially given out that the mission of Sickles to South America, the object of which has heretofore puzzled the Bohemian brigade, was to secure territory for "colonizing the negroes of the rebel States." President Lincoln was a strong advocate of colonization.

Of all the governments in the world, says the Louisville Journal, there is only one which has entered into a direct correspondence with the rebel Confederacy, and which has given to Jeff. Davis the title of "most illustrious President." This only government is that of the Pope.

ROBERT AND MURDER.—A dispatch dated at Salt Lake, July 10th, says:

The last stage from Virginia City (Montana), was attacked by "road agents" (robbers). Four passengers were killed, and the stage robbed of $75,000 in treasure. No particulars received yet.

Mount Vernon is once more accessible to visitors, a portion of the Seventy-ninth New York having been sent there as guard. Mr. Herbert, who has had charge there for six years, says the place has never been visited by the Confederate soldiery. It is in as good order as before the war.

ORIENTAL BANKRUPTCY.—There are heavy failures in English houses at Hongkong, Shanghai, Bombay and Kanagawa, consequent on the fall in tea and cotton in Europe. Eleven firms, with heavy liabilities, had suspended at Bombay.

A HARTFORD plumber has accidentally discovered that the smoke from a little charcoal fire under a tree will suffocate hundreds of worms upon it. A little sulphur placed on hot embers answers the same purpose.

An iron-clad on a new principle, discovered by the Emperor of the French, is now being constructed at Toulon. It is called La Choe, carries no guns, and only acts by its weight and speed, sinking the ships it attacks by breaking them to pieces.

Among the new names for ladies' mantles we hear of the "Wife's Blis," the "Husband's Torment," the "Banker's Terror," the "Sheriff's Joy," the "Poor Man's Horror," the "Rich Man's Dread," and the "Maiden's Delight."

A MAN in New Hampshire had the misfortune recently to lose his wife. Over the grave he caused a stone to be placed, on which, in the depth of his grief, he had ordered to be inscribed: "Tears cannot restore her, therefore I weep."

"HARRY, you ought to be ashamed to throw away bread like that; you may want it some day." "Well, mother, would I stand any better chance of getting it than should it be up now?"

The Stockton Independent says it was mistaken in saying that there were only four persons now in that county who arrived previous to 1840. It alleges that there are over forty.

We wonder whether Jeff Davis, when he put on the petticoat, called in the aid of cotton, to give a voluptuous appearance to his under-clothes.—[Extraction.]

No paper will be forwarded from this office unless the subscription is paid in advance. All papers discontinued when the subscription expires. The rule will be strictly enforced.

CORRESPONDENCE.
Our friends everywhere, who may at any time have knowledge of facts of local importance—in politics, accidents, mining news, doings of public meetings, improvements, curiosities, etc.—would confer a favor upon us and our readers generally by sending notice of the same to this office. Give us facts in any shape, and we will take care of them.

LOCAL ITEMS.

New Advertisements.—Read the new advertisements, law cards, &c., published in this paper.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to Wm. Russell, Esq., for late copies of Virginia City papers.

ASSESSMENT ROLL.—The Assessment Roll in this county, for the present year, will amount to over $1,000,000 worth of taxable property.

NEW PATENT.—A patent has recently been issued to Franklin Penney, of Indian Valley, Plumas county, for an improved shaft.

QUARTER LION.—Messrs. Edmonds & Co., have discovered a rich and extensive gold bearing quartz ledge near the Mumford Hill claim, a short distance from Meadow Valley.

BAND.—The Tin Horn Association, in this place, has received quite an addition to its members during the week. No members are admitted but those whose lungs can stand the test.

"CACHED."—We understand that Lee and Murphy informed several persons in this county that they had three gold watches buried near the Berry Creek House on the Oroville road, which they had stolen.

CONVENTION.—We hope that the citizens in every precinct in the county who endorse the call of a People's Union Convention, will see to it, that there are delegates elected in their respective precincts to represent them in the Convention.

THE PHOENIX.—It is no wonder that the Phoenix of Hartford is the favorite Insurance Company in this State. Any company that pays losses by fire, as promptly as the Phoenix, is bound to be a popular company. Read the cards published in their advertisement in this issue.

DEATH.—We call the attention of our citizens to the card of Dr. Dempster, published in this paper. The Doctor is stopping at the Plumas House, and is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line. He has been stopping in this county for several months, and from those who have had need of his services, we learn that he is an excellent dentist, and his work gives good satisfaction.

WRITING SCHOOL.—On Monday night next, July 31st, Miss Kate Dibble will open a writing school at the school-room, in this place. Miss Dibble has taught several classes at Taylorville, Crescent Mills and Greenville, during the present summer, and is spoken of in a very complimentary manner, as a teacher, by every one who has attended her school.

FIGHT.—The fight in the Convention at Sacramento, was a disgraceful affair.

A KANSAS paper, sneering at the cupidity of a contemporary, says: "The best thing he has got off this week is a dirty shirt."

THE BOLT.—The split in the Union party is the same all over the State. There will be but one or two counties in which there will not be a bolt from the regular organization. In counties where the shorts control the conventions, the Long Hairs draw out, and riot even.

YUBA NOMINATIONS.—The Yuba county Independent Convention met at Brown's Valley and nominated a full ticket. The following are the nominees: Assemblymen, Geo. Rowe, S. H. Bradley, L. B. Clark; Sheriff, P. W. Whitely; Clerk, E. M. Ragan; District Attorney, J. G. Eastman; Collector, W. L. Lawrence; Treasurer, J. P. Brown; Recorder, J. L. Hall; Assessor, P. McNulty.

JUDGE CLARK decided in Sacramento, last week, that the gambling law does not justify the indictment of any persons except the proprietors of the game, or the building in which gaming is conducted. Under the ruling ten men were discharged who had been arrested for gambling.

THE S. F. Call says: "FORNICE LAZERS."—The San Jose Mercury and one or two other professed Union papers are engaged in the mischievous business of forcing the issue of negro suffrage on the Union party and the people of this State. With a rabid and blind devotion to one idea, almost fanatical in its tendency, they insist that the Union party and its candidates should be pledged in favor of negro suffrage, which some curious freak of nature has made their special idiosyncrasy.

One hundred millions of dollars would probably fall short of the expenditures of the rebels in their defensive gunboats, iron clads, rams, floating batteries and transports. This profitable investment all went into the rebel sinking fund.

Constable's Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION ISSUED out of Justice M. R. Sturges' Court, of Washington Township, County of Plumas, on the 20th day of June, A. D. 1865, in favor of J. H. The Quincy Union.

DEBATED.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "BARBARA'S HISTORY."

The river flowed past with the light on its breast,
And the weeds went eddying by;
And the round red sun sank down in the West,
When my love's loving lips to my lips were pressed,
Under the evening sky.

Now, weeping alone by the river I stray,
For my love he has left me this many a day,
Left me to droop and die!

As the river flowed then, the river flows still,
In ripple and foam, and spray,
On by the church, and round by the hill,
And under the slope of the old burnt mill,
And out to the fading day.

But I love it no more, for delight grows cold,
When the song is sung, and the tale is told,
And the heart is given away.

Oh, river run far! Oh, river run fast!
Oh, weeds, float out to the sea!
For the sun has gone down on my beautiful past,
And the hopes that like bread on the water I cast,
Have drifted away like these!

So the dream it has fled, and the day it is done,
And my lips still murmur the name of one
Who will never come back to me!

THE WANDERING CHIVALRY.—A large number of ex-rebel officers and soldiers are wandering about our Northern cities in a disconsolate sort of way, their "occupation gone."

A gentleman met one of them yesterday in the street. They had known each other in the old days, and the following conversation ensued:

Rebel Colonel—"Hallo! Jones, how are you?"

Union Gentleman—"Is that you, Harry? What are you doing here? You've no business here: I'll have you arrested."

Rebel (throwing his arms wildly in the air)—"Great heavens! where am I to go? There's no north, no south, no east, no west for me; where am I to go? I'm subjugated, whipped, conquered—anything you please. I'm a deuced little better Union man than you, I'm for Andy Johnson, Lloyd Garrison, Wendell Phillips; am in favor of the abolition of slavery and all that sort of thing."

Union—"Well! I'll have you arrested anyhow. You're a rebel!"

Rebel—"Arrested! Look a here—(pulling out a package of papers) there's twenty oaths I've taken, besides being paroled. Why, I've sworn myself into another Topket to get out of that infernal Confederacy. Here's my brother who has always been a Union man, and now furnishes me with the arms and ammunition for the war."

Union—"Well! I'll have you arrested anyhow. You're a rebel!"

Rebel—"Arrested! Look a here—(pulling out a package of papers) there's twenty oaths I've taken, besides being paroled. Why, I've sworn myself into another Topket to get out of that infernal Confederacy. Here's my brother who has always been a Union man, and now furnishes me with the arms and ammunition for the war."
